850 ATTEND MEN OF THE CHURCH FALL RALLY

Mrs. Sidney Bost Retires After 15 Years

September brought the separation of Mrs. Bost from her regular station at Barium Springs. For a decade and a half she had been a part of the office staff of the Home. Having come during the administration of Dr. J. B. Johnston, she had kept up the voluminous correspondence in the Western North Carolina's Activities Association as well as the correspondence of the Home. Expert in her work and eager in her desire to have the thing done right, Mrs. Bost brought to the Home a quality of service unsurpassed.

As she reached the retirement age, she made the choice of withdrawing from the staff and taking up her "rocking chair routine" and planned to become a real financier as she invests her social security money.

A successor will be chosen, but no one can replace "Miss Essie B." She has served the church all her life. In her early childhood, she was a member of the Presbyterian Church, then she served the church as the wife of an Episcopal rector until her husband's death. Returning from Durham, she resumed her residence in Statesville and continued her service to the church by being a part of the Presbyterian family at Barium Springs, but continuing her membership in the Episcopal Church in her home community. Barium Springs is grateful for her stay on the campus, for the magnificent way in which she did her particular work, and for the quality of soul that she demonstrated in her dedicated service.

MEN OF THE CHURCH RALLY

September 22nd was a great day for Barium Springs and the Men of Concord Presbytery. A new record was set in the attendance of the men at the annual rally in its thirteenth session. From 5:30 o'clock in the afternoon until 9:00 o'clock in the evening men and automobiles covered the whole of the campus. Eight hundred and fifty of them had come from the churches in the Presbytery for a barbecue supper to be served by the students and staff at Barium Springs to be followed by the Fall Rally in Little Joe's Presbyterian Church. As the men entered the big dining room at Rumple Hall, they were greeted by Mr. and Mrs. Woodrow Clendenin at the "cider bar." A hundred gallons of apple cider had been prepared for the occasion and when the meeting was over there was no cider left. Barbecue was served in abundance and 75 gallons of coffee and 720 Coca-Colas were consumed in addition to the milk that was used.

After the supper the men poured into the sanctuary filling the chancel, the nave, the balcony, the narthex, porch and yard for the program that had been prepared by President A. J. Gillespie and his Men's Council. Officers were elected, reports were heard and Dr. George Vick, pastor in Charleston, West Virginia, brought a stirring message to the men. He challenged them to be "God's man" using all their energies in the work of the kingdom of God.

The students and staff of the Home take great pleasure in rendering this service to the church and feel a real sense of pride in being able to put on the table many products that have grown on the farm and in the orchard. During 40 minutes of the heavy serving, 600 men were served, meaning that every 4 seconds a man was passed down the line with plate in hand ready to begin his evening meal.

The Thanksgiving Offering provides for the children of the Home at Barium Springs. Now is the time to make plans for this Offering.

COTTAGE NEWS

HOWARD COTTAGE

Hello Friends,

Anyone who wants it can have "Paris in the Spring," but we choose Barium in the fall! What with all the beautiful colors everywhere, trees gold, red, green, tinted and blended. And leaves—leaves to decorate the cottage, leaves to study in school, leaves for jumping into, leaves for leaf houses and maybe not so much fun, but leaves for sweeping and raking.

Fall time is good old apple time too; there's no apples like Barium apples. They are a great daily treat but sometimes they are so regular a treat that we are liable to forget how lucky we are to have them.

Our cottage has three new girls, Sharon Rogers and Jean Rutter in the fourth grade and Carolyn Ladd in the fifth grade. These three with Bonnie and Marie got to go to the V. F. W. Weiner Roast in Mooresville last Friday evening. All of us got to go to the football game in Troutman that night.

We sure scurry around here to find 8 one-half hour periods every

UNDER THE STEEPLE

By REV. HUGH B. CARTER, JR.

Visitors to Sunday morning worship services during the month of September came from Charlotte, Rutherfordton, Hickory, Greensboro, New Bern, Bredgiton, and Sanford. We are always glad for friends to join us at Church services.

The Board of Christian Education sent a Revised Standard Version of the Bible, and Synod's Office sent a cash award which was presented to Emily Sue McClure on August 23 during Morning Worship for having recited from memory the Westminster Shorter Catechism. New Testaments and cash awards also came for Kay Brewer, Sylvia Bush, Mildred Waters, Barbara Webb, and Connie Webb who recited the Catechism For Younger Children. Others are working to accomplish this exercise, and we expect to be receiving more Bibles and checks to be given during the coming month.

A delegation charged with stewardship responsibilities attended a district meeting at Fifth Creek Church to hear the Reverend James V. Johnson of Atlanta in preparation for our Fall program. Those attending were Elder Roger H. Neill, Deacons Joe Ben Gibbs and Arthur Sigmon, and from the Women of the Church, Miss Mary Arthur Sims and Mrs. Glenn Steele.

Seventeen members of Little Joe's Church are away at schools and colleges, and were recognized and set apart with prayer at the Morning Worship service on the first Sunday in September. They are Calvin Burleson, Edna Evans, Ralph Joyner and Peggy Steele (Appalachian State Teacher's College); Thomas Finley, Melvin McKenzie, and A. B. McClure, Jr. (Davidson); Ennis Blackburn, LeNair Burns, Jim Bunnell and Donald Frazier (Presbyterian Junior College); Judy Bolton and Shelby McEwen (Nursing School); Ernest Austin at Lenoir Rhyne, Julia Clendenin at Flora Macdonald, Gerry Martin at Pfeiffer, and Buddy Cochrane at Philips Exeter Academy in New Hampshire. Students who have transferred their membership to churches convenient to their schools are Lawton Rice at Lees McRae and Joyce Kelly at Queens. We are proud of this fine group of students and look forward to hearing from them on Christian Student Sunday during the Christmas holidays.

The Senior High Fellowship attended supper and a special program of recreation and worship held for them by the Senior Highs at Statesville on September 27. Miss Ruth Griffith, Vocational Guidance Counselor spoke to the group here at another September meeting.

The Intensive Bible Study, conducted by the minister, has 25 members enrolled and will meet three times monthly until the study is completed.

Special thanks this month go to the members of the Ushers Guild, led by Jim Blake, for their good work in providing for the comfort of the 850 men who attended the inspirational service held under the steeple for the Men of Concord Presbytery at their Fall Rally. The boys of the Junior Varsity football squad are due equal thanks for their services volunteered to clean up and prepare the sanctuary for our regular Wednesday night service following the Rally. They removed and replaced over one hundred chairs, and books. More thanks go to Jean Murdoch who keeps the two bulletin boards interesting from week to week.

"Prayer requires preparation. A wise counselor once said, 'When you have only two minutes for prayer, spend one of them in preparation'." This comment from a pamphlet offered by the Division of Evangelism of the Board of Church Extension entitled "A Guide For Daily Prayer."

day for piano practice. The girls in our cottage who are not taking piano want to take it as soon as possible.

While our weather is pretty and our trees are so dressed up, this is a good time for you to come to see us. We'll enjoy seeing every one of you.

Love,
Howard Girls

INFIRMARY

Hello Friends,

We bet you are glad to hear from us!

Well, since our fall schedules have changed we have a new girl at the Infirmary and her name is Linda Utsman. The girl that lives down stairs is Martha Trivette.

We are back in the usual swing of things at school and on our way to make this a fine school year. We plan to study hard so we can come home well pleased with our report cards. Martha is in the tenth grade and Linda is in the eleventh grade.

The weather is beginning to change as the leaves turn and the acorns fall on the ground. Wow! They hurt when they fall on your head.

The Infirmary has a beautiful Bible that we received from Charlotte. We enjoy it very much.

Well, we will see you later.

Good-bye,
The Infirmary

SANFORD COTTAGE

Hi Folks —

After such a wonderful vacation we are settling down and getting ready for school to start. This year we are looking forward to a good sports program with Troutman. Two of the girls from our house, Audrey Waters and Jackie Taylor, are in the band. Jackie is a majorette and Audrey is a letter girl. We have four new high school girls this year. They are—Susie Blackburn, Brenda Blake, Jane Webb, and Tyressa Taylor.

Two of our little girls, Sylvia Bush and Connie Webb, recited the Catechism the other week and three of the others are trying awfully hard to recite it before school starts.

Our youngest girl, Phoebe Brumley, returned to her home in Charleston, S. C. at the beginning of the vacation period. Linda Compton from Salisbury came to live with us on August 3rd, and we enjoy having her with us.

SOUTH COTTAGE

Hi There—

Well, we are back from vacation and ready to start work again. All of us had a good time, I am sure.

A few weeks after we came back, we got a new boy. His name is Jerry Williams. He is ten years old and is in the fifth grade. Jerry hails from Spindale.

On last Friday afternoon the whole campus had different kinds of contests. We started off with high jumping and track, then we had skating, flute playing, swimming races, best dives, biggest splash. One of the main events was that someone would put a watermelon in the middle of the pool and the contestants would dive in and try to get it out. All of this proved that there are a lot of athletes on the campus. The pool is now closed for the season.

So long for now,

Mike Heritage and the South Cottage Boys

NORTH COTTAGE

Hi Friends —

We all had a good time on our vacation and have been quite busy since then with work, recreation of various kinds, and especially our new tennis court. Everyone seems to enjoy it very much. Friday (August 14th) we had a big Field Day. There were contests for track, dances, skating and swimming. Everyone took part and we had a lot of fun.

Sunday, August 9th, was really a big day for us. We had Homecoming and saw a lot of our old friends. We had a very nice church service with our chancel and junior choirs taking part. At noon we had a big picnic dinner behind the Lottie Walker building.

We are glad that school will be starting soon and are looking forward to the football games. We are really ready to buckle down and study for awhile.

—The North Cottage Girls

RUMPLE HALL

We have been in quite a rush since we got back from our vacations in July. The choirs were busy getting ready for Homecoming, and there have been many activities such as the Ping-Pong Tournament, the Tennis Tournament, and the dance and skating contests.

Homecoming was on August 9th and we enjoyed seeing all the people who came back. We have not had any birthdays in August, but we did have one in July. Mary Ann McBennett's birthday was July 19th.

School started August 26th for Troutman, August 27th for Barium. We cannot say we are quite ready for school to start, but are we ever.

We will see you next month, and by that time maybe we will have more news.
